Adventura The Conqueror Marinero

EARTH AND LEATHER. COMPLEX.

The Conqueror is the latest release by Advventura, made of only two formats: one is the Robusto Marinero, the other, the bigger Gordo Cañonero. The tobaccos used for this line are aged for at least four years. The particularity is the box, containing 20 cigars, which is entirely handmade and lacquered, resembling the shapes of a ship.

It reveals notes of black pepper and balsamic herbs, followed by hazelnut, earth and coffee beans. The profile is then enriched with leather, more and more pronounced. Cocoa beans on the finish.

Anastasia Kartel

SATISFYING. STRONG BUT ELEGANT.

The brand Anastasia was created from a collaboration between Caldwell and Carrillo. It was sold for the first time in 2016, while in 2018 it has been released with a different wrapper leaf. This news production featured a blue second band. The name of the line is a tribute to the Grand Duchess Anastasija Nikolaevna Romanova, daughter of the last Russian emperor.

Initially sweet, it releases intense notes of wood, spices and hazelnut. Then the salty component intensifies and the bouquet is enriched with fine notes of walnut and cocoa.

Arturo Fuente Angel's Share Robusto

EARTH AND PIQUANT SPICES. WELL BALANCED.

The Opus X Angel's Share line was born as a result of a fire that has burned down tobacco that had been aging for over 50 years. All this has been seen as a tribute to the angels, who will have appreciated the scents of such a high quality tobaccos. This Opus X line consists of 4 cigars, dressed with a second band, showing the name of the line.

It delivers intense notes of seasoned wood, earth and white pepper. It is then enriched with piquant spices and unripe hazelnut. The finish turns on the leather.

E.P. Carrillo Encore Majestic

CREMY AND WITH A GREAT BALANCE.

The Encore line is one of the latest news signed by Ernesto Perez Carrillo. All the tobacco used comes from Nicaragua, but cigars are made in Dominican Republic. They are aged for two years before being sold on the market. They are packaged in 10 count boxes, where the cigars are separated from each other by wooden strips, which give further elegance to the lacquered box.

It releases intense notes of earth, cocoa and a mix of hazelnut and almond. A remarkable vein of black pepper is perceptible in the aftertaste. In the finale, notes of coffee and almond alternates.
